

A DEAD BODY IN PIECES

NEAR THE LAKE SHORE, CASE TAKES A NEW TURN

Dead body in pieces

A dead body was found in pieces on the lakeshore last Monday, January 1, 2024. It is sad that it was a new year, and in the midst of everyone welcoming a new year, someone's soul was fighting between two worlds. The primary investigation and forensic reports reveal that the body was 10 days old and the internal organs were about to decompose. Since it took too long for the discovery of the body, all the hair flew away, turning the it into a bald one. An odour of putrefaction is highly noticeable. The body was not in a state of recognition. Different parts of this 10-day-old body were discovered in different parts of the lakeshore. Even though the body was discovered on the lakeshore, it leaves no marks of water content, which again leads into an unusual death pattern.

An untold story about a sex racket

The words of the eyewitness were really heartbreaking and led to a huge sex racket. The case takes a new turn. They were running a huge sex racket community behind that old temple near Lakeshore, where the body was discovered. They kidnapped ladies, including kids, who were coming together to spend some quality time in the temple and Lakeshore. They were trapped in an unknown area inside the temple, and they were labelled as devadasis. Those kidnappers were part of a huge sex racket, and those ladies and kids were brutally harmed even inside the temple.

An old lady named Subhadra, who was 55 years old, was trapped for 20 years inside that cage room inside the temple. She tried to come out of that place, but her attempts were in vain. She takes shelter inside an open alamara (shelf) to protect herself from being caught. It was locked by kidnappers unknowingly, and she died inside that.

After 9 days, they discovered her decayed dead body and suddenly realised that her death was pointing to them, and they brutally separated her body parts into multiple pieces in front of others and threw them into different parts of the lakeshore and quoted, "You all will face this same kind of punishment if you try to fool us."

It turned out to be a threat to all of mankind. It is shocking that it all took place inside a temple where devotion meets lust. The grey side of so-called divine people kills the happiness of many. Lust turns humans into animals and even leads to death. We are taking all the risks to show the courage to feature this massive issue, and now it's time to act, and we left that with you people.
